The SCC would like to thank everyone for coming out to the Annual Sleigh Ride held Dec 22, 2011. Thanks Darryll Rowland and Brian Schwindt and their teams for making the day such a success!!

Global TV also came out and interviewed a few of our locals about the School Review. Elwood White - Chair of the SCC and Review Committee did a wonderful job representing our Community and School. Jacey Rowland also did a wonderful job, she talked about the badges she had made up in support of Pangman School and how important Pangman School is to her. Great job you two!!

The Pangmans School Annual Christmas Concert was held on Dec 20th. As always the students and teachers did a fabulous job!! Thank you for the wonderful entertainment.

Congratulations to Lisa Moon on the birth of her daughter! Nia Leanna Hargest born Dec 17th. Congratulations to Lisa, Mark and big sister, Josie.

Best wishes in 2012!

Deep South Personal Care Home News

submitted by Lisa Still

Well, December has come and gone fairly quickly. It has been busy at the care home this month with Residents preparing for Christmas. We finished painting the living room just in time to start decorating the home for the holidays.

On Sunday December 4th, the Board of Directors hosted their annual residents Christmas Party. Everyone enjoyed a delicious meal and homemade pie. A huge thank-you to Gavin Porter for the entertainment as well as the Milestone Ladies from the church choir who sang Christmas carols for us. It was a great afternoon. Also thanks to the Board for their time to put on a great day. Thank-you to Eileen Tunall for generously donating her time to assist the board on the evening of our Christmas supper. It was greatly appreciated.

Many residents were able to visit with families at home this year so it was a quiet Christmas around the home. On Christmas Day the residents enjoyed opening their Christmas stockings; which were supplied by the Ladies Auxiliary. The men received razors, shaving gel, and a new under shirt and the ladies received a crocheted scarf from Debra Porter, shampoo and conditioner. Families also added to the stockings with residents favourite treats.

A Christmas present to the home is a new fridge/cooler unit that replaces a regular fridge that stopped working.

We welcomed back Brea Nyhus over the Christmas Holidays for 1 week as Activity Director. Residents were excited to see her back and it was great to see her.

If anyone in the community knows of someone who is a hairdresser and would like to work at the home every other week doing residents hair, please have them contact Lisa at the home (call 442-2043).

So, as the New Year comes upon us very quickly we look forward to another successful year. It has been great to meet all our volunteers and I thank-you for all you do. I would name everyone but I would be scared to leave someone out. You all know who you are and we Thank-you!

Wishing everyone Good health in the New Year!

Christmas Carolling

On Sunday December 11, 2011 a group of 14 people went out carolling in Pangman. We started at the Catholic Church at 1:00 pm. We stopped at many homes in Pangman and sang Christmas Carols. Later we stopped at the Care Home and sang carols. The seniors at the home enjoyed our Christmas Carolling.

We returned to the Catholic Church at about 3:00 pm for hot chocolate, coffee, tea and goodies.

Thank you to the Catholic Church Ladies for organizing this event.

Website News

As you may know, the Pangman website was launched in September 2009. In 2011 we had 6,197 people visit the website.

In 2011 the website was a great resource for those planning to come to our 100 Year Celebration, providing information and for those planning on attending. In fact in August 2011 there were so many hits to the website that it shut down for 3 days (due to visitors checking out the 100 Year Celebration news).

I have had emails from visitors telling me how they enjoy being able to keep up with all the news in Pangman. As well, the website has helped those who have recently moved to Pangman.

You can visit our website at www.pangman.ca.
